DEEP HOLE.

Sunday school is progressing nicely and school is giving perfect satisfaction.

Miss Minnie Burchett left Sunday for Richmond, Ky., where she will enter high school. She will be an entire stranger there, but any one that knows Miss Burchett can well, and highly recommend her. She is a very popular young lady, who is known in West Va., as a teacher, who has the admiration of all who know her.

We wish her success and if, or when she will have completed high school she will be one of Kentucky's best teachers.

J. W. Clark, who is teaching school at Lick creek visited home folks Friday.

Miss Martha Clark has been in Louisville for a few days having dental work done.

Clarence Stewart attended the picnic at Yatesville Saturday night.

Our school improvement league meets every other Friday night. It will meet Friday night at the school house, to make it a success we must all take a part in it, and to entertain those that come. All who come are welcome to take a part, especially, the surrounding district.

We will have a tacky party at the Deep Hole school house in honor of the league. Will also have some kind of refreshments served. We will announce date later.

Misses True Roberts and Blanche Burchett attended meeting at the tabernacle at Busseyville Sunday.

Misses George Short, Clarence Stewart and J. W. Clark called on the Misses Carter of Ose Sunday.

LICK CREEK.

Vurl Mead's funeral was preached here Sunday, Sept. 12, by Bro. Copley of Louisa.

Sunday school is progressing nicely at this place.

Quite a crowd from this place attended the camp meeting Sunday night.

John Clark visited home folks Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Stratton of Nicholasville have been visiting friends and relatives for the past few days.

Mrs. Mattie Wilson was calling on Mrs. Della Thompson Tuesday.

Bro. Crabtree will preach for us Saturday night and Sunday, Sept. 18-19.

PIKE COUNTY NEWS

THAT LOUISA-PIKEVILLE GAME AGAIN.

The Crocodiles of Pikeville extend their hearty good wishes to their brother sportsmen of Louisa, and also wish to say in defense of our article some time ago on the championship game played here, that what we said there was in self defense, and we did not believe the Louisa boys were responsible for the biased reports of the game that appeared in print in the Ashland paper.

Louisa now says the correspondent of this department must have been misinformed on the result of the game and invites Pikeville to "show its colors." The correspondent for this department was on the ground and saw each score made by Pikeville; and we note with gratification that the manager of the Louisa team does not deny the score as we printed it, although he was absent. Our work is our colors and we think without boasting, that our colors were sufficiently shown at the Ball Park.

As for a return game on the Louisa diamonds, we appreciate the invitation, but fear we cannot accept a game anywhere, as so many of our players are now absent from university work in other cities, and will not return here before Christmas. This probably means the Pikeville team is dissolved for the season.

CONSUL GENERAL GUDGER SPEAKS HERE.

Former Chief Justice and Consul General H. A. Gudger of Asheville, N. C., was the guest of Congressman J. W. Langley and Mrs. Langley at Pikeville last week. On Friday evening the distinguished visitor delivered a lecture to a large gathering at the court house, on the development of Panama and its diplomatic history. His review went back to the bloody work of Morgan, the frigate, and embraced the history of the isthmus down to the present day.

While the address gave an interesting side light on the manners and customs of Panama, and fairly sparkled with good-natured wit, it was chiefly confined to recent events in the history of the isthmus, and he stayed without sparing the overlordship policies of the Colombian government toward Panama, and said the Colombia was directly responsible for the revolt against her in 1903 which resulted in Panamanian independence. He said the Colombian government had collected enormous sums in taxes from the Canal Co. and Panama Railway Co., both owned by French interests, and also owned large sums in taxes from the people; but instead of applying it to the badly needed roads, schools, etc., it all went to Bogota, the Colombian Capital. And this, with the refusal of the Bogota government to ratify the Hay-Herran treaty, were the sole causes of the independence movement. He said Colombia then asked the U. S. to pay an indemnity of $25,000,000 and yearly sum of $250,000 for their loss resulting from the revolution, since it was claimed the U. S. responsible for the revolt. He denied the responsibility of this government and said the payment of any sum would be unjust and a dishonor to America.

OFFICER DIED RESULT OF SHOOTING.

Sidney Tackett, a constable of Pike county, who was shot on Beaver creek in Floyd-co. Saturday, Sept. 4th, died from the effects of his wounds late last week.

From the report of the trouble reaching here, it appeared that Sol Fleming, a deputy Sheriff of Floyd-co., was trying to place Tackett under arrest, and Tackett resisted, saying Fleming had no warrant or other authority, and was acting in bad faith in seeking to "get even" for having been arrested by Tackett on a previous occasion in this county. It is a discharge from Fleming's gun blew Tackett's arm off, and while badly injured he shot at Fleming, and the bullet struck Johnson in the legs, and it is said he is in a critical condition and may die. Fleming was captured by the Floyd-co. authorities Monday.

BOYS ENTER COLLEGE.

Dr. Z. A. Thompson and son James Burgess left Monday morning for Emory, Va., where Burgess will enter as a student in Emory and Henry college. That being Dr. Thompson's old Alma Mater, he feels a peculiar pride in having his only son graduate also from that famous institution. Burgess will study electrical engineering. They were accompanied by Mr. Ferdie Hoffman, who will also matriculate in the engineering department.

PRESBYTERIAN EVANGELISTIC MEETINGS IN OCTOBER.

A series of evangelistic meetings will begin at the Presbyterian church under the direction of Rev. J. Russell Crawford, the pastor early in November, to last an indefinite period.

One of the interesting features of the series will be the music which will be under the direction of Mr. Benj. F. Butts of New York, who is recognized as one of the greatest gospel singers in America. He has made a country-wide reputation as a soloist and chorus leader.

Mr. Butts will be accompanied by his wife, who is his personal worker and organizer. Mr. and Mrs. Butts have been secured for service in these meetings through their personal friendship for Mr. Crawford, the pastor.

These meetings open during Thanksgiving week. The church is also making preparations for a Rally Day Sunday school, which will be held Sunday, Oct. 3, and it will be the object to secure the largest attendance at the Sunday school service of any during the year. Every member will consider himself personally interested in achieving that result.

NEW METHODIST PASTOR FOR PIKEVILLE.

The Rev. H. J. Vinson has been assigned by the recent Annual Conference of the M. E. Church South, to succeed Rev. I. N. Fannin as pastor of the M. E. Church South at Pikeville, and it is thought he will arrive at this place in time for the usual preaching services Sunday. Mr. Vinson was pastor at Point Pleasant, West Va., last year.

Rev. Mr. Fannin has been appointed to act for the coming year as Presiding Elder of the Charleston district of his church and he will be located with his family at Fayetteville, West Va.

Special preparations are being made for the Sunday services which will be the first to be held under the direction of the new pastor and special program of appropriate music have been prepared by Mrs. Gertrude M. Wilhoit and the choir for each of the Sunday services.

GOOD ROADS LETTERS.

Several citizens of the county have written some interesting letters to the editor of this department on the subject of good roads, but they failed to reach us on account of being misdirected. In writing communications for publication in this paper address them simply to Lock Box No. 284, Pikeville, and make them as brief as possible, omitting all language that might get the editor into trouble or make him defendant in a damage suit, and we will gladly print them.

PUBLIC RECEPTION FOR RETIRING PASTOR.

As a surprise to the Rev. I. N. Fannin, retiring pastor of the M. E. Church South, of Pikeville, and his wife and children, a public reception, for which elaborate preparations had been made, was given in their honor at the church yesterday evening. A great number of their friends were received by the receiving line, of five couples, at which they stood at the head, and the church was filled with friends and acquaintances who sincerely regret to have them leave our city. Many beautiful decorations, floral and otherwise, were at hand to convey some idea of the esteem in which the people of Pikeville hold Mr. and Mrs. Fannin and their children. The evening was pleasantly spent in various amusements and in recounting the events in the history of the church in which the pastor and his family have taken part. Refreshments consisting of cream, cake, sherbet and fruit were served.

This closed the fourth year of Rev. I. N. Fannin's work as pastor at Pikeville. It can be truthfully said that he accomplished more during that time than any other man having charge of this work. Shortly after he came here he saw the need of a new church building, and with his usual interest he set about to raise funds with which to build it. The result is the magnificent new $25,000 church building which now stands at corner Main-st. and Huffman-ave. as a monument to the zeal and enterprise of both Rev. and Mrs. Fannin. The church membership has also grown, and the Sunday school enrollment went up by leaps and bounds. Jimmy Renfro's class of boys is perhaps the largest class of its kind in Eastern Kentucky.

The wishes of the people of Pikeville will follow the pastor and his family to their new home at Fayetteville, West Va., where they will be located for the coming year.

MORROW SPEAKS.

The address of Hon. Edwin P. Morrow, Republican nominee for Governor, was one of three political speeches addressed to the people of Pike-co. at Pikeville last Monday.

Hon. David Hayes of Whitesburg, Democratic nominee for Circuit Judge, opened the series of addresses with a short talk, and he was followed by Hon. John F. Butler, Republican nominee also for Circuit Judge. At the close of his speech Mr. Butler introduced Mr. Morrow, who was greeted with applause and was cheered frequently during the course of his address. Mr. Morrow's speech was substantially the same as that delivered at Bowling Green at the opening of his campaign.

WRIGHT CAPTURED.

Matt Sanders, the courageous deputy U. S. Marshal, who last week took him to be the better part of valor and made his way out of Elkhorn creek after Monroe Wright and his four boys disarmed him and told him he had better not hang around.

Sanders had a warrant for the arrest of Wright on a charge of white slavery, and later went back after him and his boys who, it is claimed by Sanders, helped him resist arrest. He got two of the boys, Booker and Will Wright, and brought them to Pikeville.

MINISTERS ASSOCIATION.

The county annual of the Christian churches of Pike-co. was held at Ferry's creek last Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Ministers and members of this church from every part of the county were present to take part in the proceedings.

One of the features of interest of the annual was the organization of a Ministers' Association of the Christian church, of which practically all the Ministers of that church in the county have become members. Of this organization Rev. Geo. F. Tinsley, pastor of the Pikeville church, was chosen as permanent chairman, and Rev. S. M. Ramey as Sec.-Treas.

The object of the Association of Ministers is to increase the value of their work by training and to give to all the best ideas in the experience of each. The Association will meet at Pikeville on the first Tuesday in each month hereafter.

ATTENDS W. C. T. U.

Mrs. J. Russell Crawford left Pikeville Tuesday for an extended visit to Louisville and Nashville. While absent from Pikeville Mrs. Crawford will attend the annual State Convention of the W. C. T. U., which will be held at Bowling Green beginning today and continuing over to Tuesday inclusive. She will also attend the Woman's Synodical Missionary Meeting of the Presbyterian church to be held at Smith's Grove, Ky., Sept. 24-26.

On her return trip Mr. Crawford will be the guest of friends at Winchester for a few days.

SUPT. CAMPBELL'S INFANT SON DIED.

The 22-months old son of County Superintendent of Schools M. F. Campbell and Mrs. Campbell died here of Cholera Infantum last Monday afternoon, after a considerable illness. The little body was taken to the home of its grandfather, Thos. Campbell, on far Chloe creek for interment. Tuesday, Rev. M. C. Reynolds, pastor of the First Methodist Church, preached the funeral sermon, and quite a number of neighbors and friends gathered around to take a last look at the little one and to offer consoling sympathy to the sorrowing father and mother.

AGAIN PROBE FRAUDS.

Judge James M. Roberson sitting in the Pike Circuit Court, which convened Tuesday morning, instructed the grand jury to make a thorough investigation into acts of corruption at the August Primary election, evidences of which amply developed at the hearing of the recent contest case of Taylor vs. Coleman.

The jury, under the court's instructions, will seek to fix the blame upon proper parties for having tampered with the ballot box from Coeburn precinct. In examining this box during the trial of the contest case it was found to have been stuffed with old newspapers instead of containing a proper return of ballots. Alleged irregularities in Lower Elkhorn precinct No. 13 will also be closely scrutinized. The pleadings in the contest suit charged that "every fraud known and every dishonesty available was here practiced" in an effort to manipulate the election so as to defeat government by the ballot.

GO TO FLORIDA.

Mrs. S. H. Wright and daughter, Mrs. Wilbur White, left for their farm near Fort Pierce, Fla., last Monday, and they will be joined by Mr. Wright some time during the coming winter. Mr. Wright is owner and manager of the Big Sandy Hotel at Pikeville, and he has not yet decided what disposition he will make of his interests here.

VICTIM OF POISON.

Coon McCoy, a farmer living on Raccoon creek in this county, died from poisoning after taking his usual morning toddy last Tuesday. His wife, Polly McCoy, who had been at Pikeville for several days prior to her husband's death, was arrested a few hours afterwards and placed in the Pikeville jail pending investigation of the grand jury into circumstances surrounding the tragic death. The bottle containing the whisky from which he had taken the fatal draught was submitted to physicians here for examination, and it was found to have been heavily charged with strychnine and that enough of it was present to have caused the death of at least fifty men. It is regarded as a miracle that McCoy was the only one who drank from the bottle, otherwise there would have been more deaths.

It is said domestic troubles had existed between McCoy and his wife for a long while, and that he once beat her into insensibility and left her for dead. It is known that she lived in dread of him; but whether this furnishes a motive for the crime, and whether she prepared the poisonous draught for him, as is claimed, is a matter yet to be determined.

The stomach was taken from the body of the dead man and sent with the whisky to the state chemical authorities for analysis.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Congressman W. J. Fields of Olive Hill addressed a considerable gathering of people at the court house here last Monday evening on the subjects of better roads and higher education. He has succeeded in arousing a lively interest in these great needs of the people at Pikeville.

Miss Helen Record, who was a student at the Kentucky State University at Lexington last year, returned to Lexington Tuesday of this week to resume her studies after a vacation of several weeks.

Dr. F. C. Edgar, who spent several weeks recently at his former home at West Union, Ohio, also in other cities of that state, returned to Pikeville last week to resume his professional work here.

Attorney Ballard James of Prestonsburg has been in Pikeville for several days recently on professional business.

Judge James P. Marks, who is now a prosperous farmer of near Winchester, Ky., has been at Pikeville for the greater part of this week. He formerly lived at Pikeville, and is ex-Police Judge of this city.

Will M. Smith, also a former resident of this city and former Sheriff of Pike-co., was at Pikeville early this week looking after extensive business interests.

Mrs. A. D. Cline left early this week for Ironton, where she has been the guest of friends for several days. She will remain at Ironton for the apple exhibit beginning this week.

The ladies of the Christian church of Pikeville gave what they were pleased to call a Lemon Social at the church Tuesday evening. Quite a large gathering of people were present and enjoyed the social event at the invitation publicly extended to all in a very cordial manner by Judge F. W. Stowers. The Pikeville Concert Band furnished music for the party.

Mrs. Frank Engler, of Fort Pierce, Fla., who is the guest of friends at Pikeville for a few days, was entertained in a very delightful manner to a dance given in her honor last week by her two nieces, the Misses Fern and Myrtle Polley, at Millard, this county. An orchestra from Hellier and about 22 couples were present to participate in the evening's enjoyment.

Miss Vivian Hayes of Louisa has been the guest of Mrs. N. C. Day at Pikeville for a part of this week.

It is said Geo. W. Coleman has entered the race for Circuit Court Clerk by petition as an independent candidate in opposition to W. B. Taylor, the Republican nominee. Coleman is traveling representative for Swift & Co., and is well and popularly known.

FLOYD COUNTY'S RECORD FOR WEEK

News From Prestonsburg and the Surrounding Country.

On last Saturday Sol Flanery, a deputy sheriff of Floyd county shot and wounded Sidney Tackett at Weeksbury, this county. Flanery surrendered to an officer and was brought before the County Judge on a charge of malicious shooting and was admitted to bail until trial, which was postponed to await the appearance of the friends of the prosecution and until Tackett was able to attend. Blood poison set in from which Tackett died Thursday.

Willie Hall, a deputy sheriff, then arrested Flanery and while on his way to the county seat with the prisoner he was boarding the Big Sandy train and in an instant both he and the prisoner were surrounded by a dozen or more heavily armed men, led by a deputy sheriff of Pike county, who demanded an immediate surrender of the prisoner. About this time the engineer began to ring the bell and two of the crowd put guns in the face of the conductor and notified him that the train must stand still, and like the sun when Old Joshua spoke "she stood still," while the passengers went under seats and out at the windows. Following this a rather interesting controversy arose as to conflicting jurisdiction between the Pike and Floyd courts, which up to this date has not been decided.

Hon. Edwin P. Morrow spoke here Tuesday, and was greeted by a large and enthusiastic audience. He was introduced by County Chairman S. C. Ferguson.
